

NEW YORK CITY

TABLE ENVY

Arguably the city's most intimate culinary experience, The Chefs Table at Brooklyn Fare is the pinnacle of an already three Michelin-starred restaurant, helmed by Chef César Ramirez. A fusion of French and Japanese cuisine, the multi-course menu plays out over nearly three hours, and is focused on shellfish and other seafood. Selections from the 7,000-bottle cellar will be on hand, too, as will just about unparalleled bragging rights. Dress code is formal business attire, and seatings Tuesdays through Saturdays generally begin between 6:00 and 6:30 P.M. $394.36 per person, plus tax and beverages. 431 West 37th Street, brooklynfare.com/pages/chefs-table

CUSTOM COFFRET

Each year, Valmont introduces a limited-edition coffret (small box or container) housing a jar of its most luxurious facial cream—l'Elixir des Glaciers Votre Visage. For 2018, Didier Guillon, president and artistic director of Valmont Group, designed an imperial blue dragon, a symbol of pride and power, to represent his wife, Sophie Guillon, Valmont Group CEO, and Master Glassmaker Leonardo Cimolin brought the image to life in Murano glass. There are only 100 pieces globally, exclusively available in New York at Spa Valmont at Hôtel Plaza Athénée NYC for $775. 37 East 64th Street, valmontcosmetics.com

THE REAL REZDÒRA

Rezdòra is the Modenese word for “grandmother,” and a fitting name for a new restaurant rooted in the traditions of Italy’s Emilia-Romagna region. Chef Stefano Secchi (seen here) is Sardinian but spent years honing skills in Modena at Osteria Francescana (voted the world’s best restaurant by San Pellegrino World’s 50 Best) under Mossimo Bottura, and perfecting the art of handmade pasta under Nonna Laura Morandi at Hosteria Giusti. Secchi’s menu focuses on freshly made pastas with local vegetables and specialty products imported from bella Italia. 27 East 20th Street, rezdora.nyc

BROADWAY UNDER THE STARS

For the third year, The Shops at Columbus Circle will host mini Broadway performances over five consecutive weeks, and under the massive stars hanging from its 100-foot-high ceiling. No tickets are required; simply show up Mondays at 5 P.M. on the second-floor mezzanine through December 11. Casts from musicals perform 20-minute highlights from shows, with a lineup including Wicked (Nov. 27), Chicago (Dec. 4), Once on This Island (Dec. 11), plus Dear Evan Hansen, Kinky Boots, Waitress, Beautiful: The Carole King Musical, and School of Rock (dates of last five shows unannounced at time of press). 10 Columbus Circle, theshopsatcolumbuscircle.com

SHOP AND SKATE

This winter, the Conrad New York will be the most festive hotel in lower Manhattan. In collaboration with Westfield World Trade Center, a new VIP package there includes a personal shopper, a $200 gift card, a private tour of Santiago Calatrava’s $4 billion Oculus World Trade Center station house, and an in-suite turndown gift box that includes a Dior beauty bag with products from Caudalie, Rituals, and other makers. Guests can also book a private skating lesson with Olympians Melissa Gregory and Denis Petukhov at The Rink at Brookfield Place. So learn to twizzle, with the Instagram videos to prove it. 102 North End Avenue, conrdanewyork.com
