

AN ODE TO GIN

L A S V E G A S

Juniper Cocktail Lounge is capitalizing on gin's growing global popularity with the largest collection of such liquor in Las Vegas and a focus on classic cocktails like martinis, negronis, and fizzes. There's a playful Fortune Teller gin & tonic, too, with much of the glassware on site hand-washed because it's so intricate and delicate. The décor, including plush floral embroidered pillows and brass tree branch chandeliers, is inspired by a European garden. MGM Resorts corporate mixologist and lounge bar chief Craig Schoettler made a name for himself working at top cocktail bars in Chicago like The Aviary and Drumbar before relocating to Vegas. 3770 South Las Vegas Boulevard, parkmgm.com/en/nightlife/juniper-cocktail-lounge.html

HOOK ME UP

After wild nights out, the IV therapies and booster shots at REVIV Wellness Spa are just what the doctor ordered. Replenish fluids, vitamins, electrolytes, and antioxidants for immediate health improvement, including hangover cures like the Hydromax hydration and Ultraviv recovery infusions, while the Vitaglow anti-aging infusion is an excellent beauty boost, and the Royal Flush Deluxe IV combines the benefits of all three. REVIV's new location is its flagship (and third in the city), located between Drybar and Molly Brown's Swimwear in The Cosmopolitan. Guests of the hotel can get treatments in-room, too, for extra privacy. Level 2 The Boulevard Tower, 3708 South Las Vegas Boulevard, revivme.com
