

KAOS KNOCKOUT

As part of the ongoing $690 million re-imagining of Palms Casino Resort, Vegas gets its newest dayclub-meets-nightclub, and it's a behemoth. KAOS is a 100,000-square-foot multi-level venue, outfitted with innovative lighting technology, dramatic design, and art elements like Sin City has never seen before, including a 65-foot bronze sculpture by Damien Hirst rising from the center of one of two main pools (seen here). Most of the 39 private cabanas come with their own pools, and the rotating 360-degree DJ booth caters to indoor and outdoor crowds. Above & Beyond, Cardi B, G-EAZY, Kaskade, and Skrillex began exclusive residences to celebrate the club's opening in April. 4321 West Flamingo Road, palms.com/kaos

UP CLOSE WITH THE PERSONAL JET

Take off in the Cirrus SF50 Vision this summer—or “the world’s first personal jet” as its Duluth, MN-based maker describes it—via All In Aviation, a full-service company that specializes in Cirrus Aircraft training, rental, and sales. Flight lessons in the single-engine, seven-seat jet are available at $1,500 per hour, and depart from Henderson Executive Airport. Much more powerful and speedy than a prop plane, the Vision makes the cruise over the Hoover Dam to the Grand Canyon a snap, with a car-like autopilot mode and controls and a friendly instructor that makes sure you stay on course, so even first-time pilots can be assured of a smooth landing. Henderson Executive Airport, 1410 Jet Stream Drive, Suite 150, allinaviation.com

VENICE TO VEGAS

Cipriani's latest restaurant, in the Wynn Plaza, serves up classic Italian recipes in a glamorous setting complete with terrazzo floors, plush leather seats, glossy walnut, and nautical accents reminiscent of its original Venice location. Signature dishes include Carpaccio alla Cipriani, Baked Tagliolini with Ham, and Vanilla Meringue Cake. Of course, you must also try a bellini with white peach purée, invented by Giuseppe Cipriani himself in 1948 at Harry's Bar in Venice. A new three-course lunch prix fixe for $29 is available seven days a week, and a special three-course theater menu is available for $73.90 before or after any show at Wynn Las Vegas. Seen here is the Tortellini Panna Piselli e Prosciutto. Fantastico! 3131 South Las Vegas Boulevard, cipriani.com

IN ALL HER VERY GOLDEN GLORY

New York City native Stefani Joanne Angelina Germanotta, aka Lady Gaga, continues her Sin City residency at MGM Las Vegas's Park Theater. Shows June 1, 6, 8, 12, and 14 will be full-scale “Enigma” performances, while June 2 and 19 bring stripped-down “Jazz & Piano” shows. The former showcases the nine-time Grammy Award winner's biggest hits, the latter classics from the Great American Songbook as well as stripped-down versions of signature Gaga tracks. Remaining Enigma ticket prices (money.com reported in January that she earns more than $1 million per Vegas show) start, mind you, at $650 (topping out at $3,690), while Jazz & Piano is a relative bargain at $500 for the cheapest seats. 3770 S Las Vegas Boulevard, parkmgm.mgmresorts.com, vividseats.com

DIVE-IN MOVIES

For the ninth summer, The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas will transform its 65-foot digital marquee into a colossal movie screen overlooking the Strip, showing movies every Monday evening beginning at 8 P.M. through September 2. Films range from classics like Dirty Dancing and Jaws to recent blockbusters like Crazy Rich Asians and Black Panther. Take a dip or lounge poolside while enjoying specialty cocktails and movie snacks under the stars. Admission is $7, but hotel guests receive complimentary entry. 3708 South Las Vegas Boulevard, cosmopolitanlasvegas.com
